Have you heard about the Futures Factory, Phnom Penh’s new space where creativity and social impact come together? Up for a challenge? Interested in being part of the team that is making this place buzzing with people?

If you answered ‘yes’ to any of these then you may just be the person we are looking for.

How about these? Think you’d fit?

• You will be coordinating activities in a large space including a youth centre and community markets, with a strong commercial aspect
• You will be engaging with customers and business partners while leading our marketing efforts
• You will be organizing events (food festival, local band’s gig, poetry reading, a music festival etc.)
• You speak hashtag and have experience managing social media accounts
• You are excited about creating an urban safe space where young Cambodians get together to learn to create, and innovate
• You speak Khmer fluently and your English is excellent

YES? Then what are you waiting for!

We are excited to welcome new crew members at the Friends Futures Factory! FFF is a unique place in the heart of Phnom Penh aiming to gather creative minds so they can learn, collaborate and explore their ideas. FFF team is an integral part of different activities happening in the space – we need enthusiastic coordinators to work on Space Management, Marketing, Communications and Community Engagement. This is a great opportunity for someone who’s excited about being there when the new project is starting and making it a success together with the multicultural and multidisciplinary team counting more than 300 #EverydayHeroes. You’ll get a chance to build an entire team that will work together on running the space!

Sounds good? Awesome! Please email your CV now hr@friends-international.org and let’s talk more.

All applicants will undergo an extensive background check in compliance with our Child/Beneficiary Protection Policy and PSEA Policy.
