HELLO FROM KALIYAN MITH SIEM REAP

ENGLISH TEACHER POSITION

Do you feel stuck in a routine job? Are you experienced in teaching English? Do you feel excited about working with young people and adults who are students at our vocational training?

If you answered ‘yes’ then you may just be the person we need.

We are looking for an English Teacher to design fun and creative lessons for students who are attending one of our vocational training (Barber, Mechanic, Beauty Salon etc.). We will need you to tailor the classes based on the students’ needs and boost their chances for finding employment or starting their own enterprise! You will be collaborating with a multidisciplinary Friends team consisted of other Social Workers, Teachers, Hospitality Trainers, Project Officers, Technical Advisors, Employment Workers, HR/Finance/Admin teams etc. - more than 300 multicultural Friends’ team members across Southeast Asia. What about these? Think you’d fit?

How about these responsibilities? Would you enjoy them?

• Providing English classes adapted to each skill of the Vocational Training Centre (Cook, Hair Cut, Sewing, Mechanic Motor, and Beauty Salon)
• Managing English class activities and ensure that all the educational materials are adequate for teaching
• Preparing the lesson for teaching to different groups of students (Cook, Hair Cut, Sewing, Mechanic Motor, and Beauty Salon).
• Supporting case managers with updating the case information needed to make sure the case is running well for individuals
• Evaluating students when they graduate their vocational training skills
• Keeping track and record of activities, monitoring and preparing reports to the manager

APPLICATION INFORMATION
