This document aims at providing guidelines and procedures to protect all people in contact with Friends-International services.

Beneficiaries are the children, youth and adults that the teams are working with or that are in contact with the Friends-International services, including (but not exclusively):

- Children, Youth and Adults the teams meet during their outreach activities (including mobile buses, mobile teams, prisons, other centers, etc.);
- Children and Youth coming to the Friends-International services (including: drop-in centers, Transitional Homes, remedial schools, support classes, vocational training, Futures, Futures Factory, etc.)

Friends-International is a Child Protection organization, it is therefore important to have a clear, stand-alone Child Protection Policy / Child Safeguarding Policy (The Friends ChildSafe Protection Policy) but complement it with an adult specific document.

This Beneficiary Protection Policy is therefore divided into 2:

- The Friends ChildSafe Protection Policy;
- The Beneficiary Protection Policy.
Protecting Children in contact with Friends-International services from all forms of abuse

According to Article 19 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, ‘children should be protected from all forms of physical or mental violence, injury or abuse, neglect or negligent treatment, maltreatment or exploitation, including sexual abuse’.

PREAMBULE:

Friends-International (FI) as a child protection organization is committed to child protection and aims to achieve the highest level of protection for children.

Friends-International’s work reflects the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child: “Stated Parties shall protect the child from all forms of physical or mental violence, injury or abuse, neglect or negligent treatment, maltreatment or exploitation, including sexual abuse” (UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (1989), Article 19).

In addition, as Friends-International’s beneficiaries include children, youth and their caretakers (adults), it is essential that all beneficiaries be equally protected.

To that end, Friends-International implements policies and procedures which significantly strengthen beneficiaries’ protection within all its programs and projects and among its partners’ projects.
This ChildSafe Protection Policy covers ALL beneficiaries including children, youth, caretakers and other adults in contact with the Friends-International services. However, adult specific protection measures are outlined in a separate document (Beneficiary Protection Policy)

THE CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD (CRC): The CRC is the key guiding document for Child Protection at Friends-International. This ChildSafe Protection Policy directly refers to the CRC and clarifications will be drawn from that text.

NATIONAL LAWS: Friends-International abides to all relevant local laws that protect and uphold the rights of children in the country of operations. These laws will correct and complement the ChildSafe Protection Policy at local level and as needed. However, since a signatory country has to abide by the CRC in their laws, the CRC will take precedence when issues arise (except in the USA, non-signatory)

INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS: Friends-International will always strive to follow and be attuned to International Standards in Child Protection and ensure that the policies and practices are adapted to provide the highest level of protection at all times.

FRIENDS-INTERNATIONAL CORE VALUES:
• All children are human beings, who are the subject and receivers of human rights that Friends-International will respect at all times;
• All children have equal rights to protection from all forms of abuse and exploitation regardless of their gender, race, health situation, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, social background or culture;
• All child abuse involves the abuse of children’s rights;
• Child abuse is never acceptable;
• All children should be encouraged to fulfill their potential and inequalities should be challenged;
• Everybody has a responsibility to support the care and protection of children;
• We have a duty of care to the children with whom we work and with whom our representatives work;
• When we work through partners they have a responsibility to meet minimum standards of protection for the children in their programs.
THE FRIENDS-INTERNATIONAL’S CHILDSAFE PROTECTION POLICY

Friends-International’s ChildSafe Protection Policy is based on the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child. It is a policy established throughout Friends-International Programs to effectively keep children safe. It is a fundamental component of our work which sets out the systems and processes we are committed to, in order to effectively keep children safe. It makes clear to everyone involved with Friends-International that children must be protected; it helps to create a safe and positive environment for children, and demonstrates the commitment of Friends-International to its duty of care.

The Friends-International Child Protection policy provides a framework of principles, standards and guidelines on which to base individual and organizational practices to become aware of, prevent and respond to risks and abuse. Friends-International is committed to ensuring that a full ChildSafe Protection System is operational throughout the organization which informs the organization’s programs.

F. Participation: we ensure that children are actively involved in creating a safe environment and we take seriously their views, wishes and concerns in all matters regarding their safety and protection.

6 | COMPONENTS AND PROCESS

Friends-International has 7 key elements for its ChildSafe Protection Policy

1. Personnel recruitment
2. Education and training
3. Management structure
4. Behavior protocols
5. External communication
6. Reporting and reaction process
7. Ramifications of misconduct
6.1 PERSONNEL RECRUITMENT

REQUIREMENTS FOR PERSONNEL RECRUITMENT

We are committed to ensuring that all personnel who have direct or indirect contact with children through the work of Friends-International, that is to say all employees, contractors, trustees, officers, interns and volunteers, whether paid or unpaid, full-time or part-time, temporary or long-term, must undergo a thorough and standardized recruitment process.

GUIDELINES ON RECRUITMENT

Advertisement of vacancies and application forms
To deter child abusers and individuals seeking out organizations with weak protection procedures from applying and to communicate Friends-International’s strong engagement for and transparency about child protection issues, all advertisements for job vacancies and application forms must make reference to the child protection policy and screening process on both the job advertisements (paper, online) and on the application forms.

Interviews of candidates
Job interviews are the first test for child protection safeguards. To ensure that every recruitment opportunity is used to explore candidates’ suitability for a post in relation to child protection issues and to ensure that all candidates are judged on the basis of equal opportunity, Friends-International has a standardized interview process in place. One member of the recruitment panel must be trained in and be familiar with issues of child protection to be able to ask pertinent child protection related questions and to look out for warning signs of potential risk to children.

In addition to assessing applicants according to pre-determined specific essential and desirable skills, the interview is as an opportunity to:

- assess candidates’ history in relation to child protection, including:
  - to find out whether there have been previous child protection concerns relating to when the candidate was working for other organizations and whether this might have led to dismissal or frequent changes in jobs;
  - to explore whether periods of absence from employment may be due to (e.g.) time in custody, and suspicious activity. Warning signs include:
    - gaps in employment history (if the candidate has had a career working in children’s issues)
• frequent changes of employment or address (if the candidate has had a career working in children’s issues)

• reasons for leaving employment (especially if this appears sudden)

• any duties or accomplishments that come across as ‘vague’ in a CV in relation to work with children

• prevalence of regular overseas travel to destinations where child sex tourism occurs

• body language and evasion, contradiction and discrepancies in answers given

• Inform about the ChildSafe Protection Policies: to dissuade potential abusers from pursuing employment at Friends-International

• Assess warning signals during the interview

GUIDELINES PRIOR TO EMPLOYMENT OF NEW PERSONNEL

Before a candidate is finally chosen for a job, the following conditions have to be fulfilled:

• Check of Character References

• Check of Professional References

• Police reference / self-declaration of criminal convictions

• Commitment to child protection policy and signing of the code of conduct

(See Annex 1 for examples of questions and guidelines)
6.2 | EDUCATION AND TRAINING

A REQUIREMENTS FOR EDUCATION AND TRAINING

• All personnel associated with Friends-International need to fully understand the child protection policy and procedures, to know exactly what to do as part of their ongoing work and also in the event of an incident, to know where to get further advice and support. Personnel must know how to implement policies and procedures and work to the same high standards. Personnel must feel confident and comfortable in discussing child protection issues.

• Friends-International will provide enough opportunities for personnel to develop and maintain the necessary skills and understanding to safeguard children.

• Friends-International will also provide opportunities for children themselves to understand the importance of child protection. All children must know best how to protect themselves and make use of the policies and procedures in place (i.e Policies and informative posters available and accessible to children, reporting boxes available where possible).

B GUIDELINES ON EDUCATION AND TRAINING

For Personnel:
There are different types of training / orientation to be carried out:

• Initial / basic awareness raising and training on the organization’s child protection policy for new staff and associated personnel when they join the organization (within 8 weeks). New representatives to receive child protection training as soon as possible (preferably provided by the child protection officer within the first days after employment)

• A ChildSafe training and certification is mandatory

• General refresher training for personnel (once/twice a year) to remind personnel of procedures in place and to update on any new developments
For Children:
Children are to be trained to:

- Know how to protect themselves;
- Know what behavior to expect from personnel and from each other;
- Know the difference between ‘good touch’ and ‘bad touch’; and
- Know when and to whom to speak out to if they feel uncomfortable or at risk.

Therefore, orientation is given to children themselves on all relevant aspects of the organization’s ChildSafe Protection Policy and the Procedures. Children Representatives are involved in updating the training/orientation session for children to ensure that it is easily understood, appropriate and useful to other children

(See Annex 2 for Training Outline)

6.3 | MANAGEMENT STRUCTURE

REQUIREMENTS FOR MANAGEMENT STRUCTURE

As a ChildSafe organization Friends-International strives to have a clear structures and an open and aware culture in place to ensure that all personnel and children feel confident and comfortable speaking out and implementing ChildSafe Protection safeguards.

The management structure strives to facilitate the implementation of the child protection policy and procedures both in Friends-International Management and in Managements of Friends-International Programs and Projects. The ChildSafe Management structure includes:

- A governing Board
- An Executive Director
- Deputy Directors
- International Coordinators
- Program Directors
- Child Protection Officers (CPO)
- An International Human Resources Coordinator
GUIDELINES ON MANAGEMENT STRUCTURE

- Supportive environment: Management will encourage personnel to actively participate in the protection of children, by fostering and promote open lines of communication, an atmosphere of support and encouragement for reporting and a positive environment for giving and receiving feedback.

- Values: Management must reflect core values and principles, uphold a professional approach and demonstrate awareness of abuse. Management must demonstrate leadership in this area and act as role models.

- Supervision and support: Ongoing supervision, monitoring and support is provided for all personnel to ensure that child protection policies and procedures are understood and being implemented and that any problems or queries are dealt with as soon as they arise.

- Staff evaluation: Child Protection issues are included in regular, formal staff evaluations. This helps to assess existing knowledge and to identify further training needs on an individual basis. This also helps to provide an opportunity for personnel to input into suggestions for improvement and to feed into overall organizational monitoring of the child protection policy.

- Internal/external organizational evaluations: Child Protection issues are incorporated into regular internal and external program and organizational evaluations/assessments.

- Child Protection Officers (CPO): Management will designate ideally 2 persons per Program, ideally 1 male and 1 female as CPOs to implement child protection policies and procedures to ensure that child protection is prioritized within Friends-International and that it is promoted to all staff.

- Standardized Reporting Procedure: Friends-International has a written procedure on what to do if a member of personnel is concerned about, witnesses, hears or suspects potential child abuse. This written procedure is to be kept up to date and clearly displayed in the organization for easy reference.

(see Annex 3 for the Reporting Procedure)
6.4 | CODE OF CONDUCT

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE CHILDSAFE CODE OF CONDUCT

Friends-International has and regularly reviews a set of guidelines for behavior (“Code of Conduct”) for all employees, contractors, trustees, interns, volunteers and visitors detailing appropriate and inappropriate behavior with children and beneficiaries.

This Code of Conduct clarifies what constitutes appropriate and inappropriate behavior towards children/ beneficiaries and ensures that all personnel understand and abide by behaviors which create a ChildSafe environment that respects children’s physical and mental integrity. This is also to avoid potential misunderstandings which may lead to false allegations of child abuse or misconduct with other beneficiaries.

Behavior guidelines also allow children/beneficiaries to know what behavior to expect from personnel and to know the limitations of personnel authority, reducing the risk of other forms of abuse.

The Code of Conduct encourages personnel to interpret the Code in a spirit of transparency and common sense, with the best interests of the child as the primary consideration and that of all beneficiaries connected to Friends-International. The Code of Conduct acts as a constant reminder and is a point of easy reference in times of doubt and emergency. Personnel Representatives must promote copies of the Code in all situations where the organization is responsible for bringing children into contact with adults, including outside of the program or project environment, such as in workshops, conferences or other external events, or research and visits from donors or other NGOs. (See Annex 4 for the Code of Conduct and related documents)
Within its fundraising and publicity materials, Friends-International is sometimes required to use text and imagery from its projects around the world. In so doing, it recognizes that it has a responsibility to the children who are portrayed. Friends-International has a set of guidelines (Media Guidelines and External Communication Guidelines) to control confidential information regarding children and to prevent the presentation of degrading images of children through the organization’s publications, social media and website.

These Guidelines aim to clarify what constitutes appropriate and inappropriate use of written, visual and verbal information relating to children and to ensure that all personnel understand the importance of protecting and respecting children’s dignity and privacy and which safeguards them from being identified by those who may wish to harm them.

External Communication guidelines also allow children to know what rights they have regarding the use of information that relates to them, to introduce them to the concept of ‘informed consent’ regarding such information and when to speak out if they feel uncomfortable.

In addition to guidelines for personnel, Friends-International also has a set of guidelines for individuals, researchers, organizations or representatives of media that either request the use of Friends-International resources (e.g. photos, case studies) or want to make any reports/interviews/films/photographs by themselves. They are required to sign the Media Guidelines agreement with the organization that clarify how the images are to be taken and the proper use of such materials.

GUIDELINES ON EXTERNAL INFORMATION ABOUT CHILDREN AND BENEFICIARIES

The Guidelines cover the following:

- Representation: Every child has a right to be accurately represented through both words and imagery. The organization’s portrayal of each child must not be manipulated or sensationalized in any way and must be presented as human beings with their own identity and dignity preserved.

- To be avoided: Friends-International will avoid the following:
  - Language and images that could possibly degrade or victimize or shame children;
  - Making generalizations which do not accurately reflect the nature of the situation;
- Dignity: The preservation of the child’s dignity must be preserved at all times.

- Nudity: In images, children must not be depicted unclothed or in any poses that could be interpreted as sexually provocative.

- Identity: Personal and physical information that could be used to identify the location of a child within a country and cause them to be put at risk will not be used on the organization’s website, social media or in any other form of external communication. Where it is necessary to use case studies to highlight the work of Friends-International, names of children will be changed and images will not have a direct correlation with the content of the text or not allow the identification of the child (group shots).

- Consent: To the greatest extent possible, the organization will acquire informed consent/the permission of the child, child’s guardian and/or NGO responsible for the child, before using any image for publicity, fundraising, awareness raising or other purpose. The purpose should be made clear to the consent giver. Friends-International will make an ethical judgment before making such a request.

- Permission: Even with consent, permission will always be sought from the child/children themselves before taking photographs, except under exceptional circumstances, based on the child/children’s best interests, where this may not be possible or desirable.

- Self-Promotion: As far as possible, people (including children) must be able to give their own accounts, rather than have people speak on their behalf. People’s (including children’s) ability to take responsibility and action for themselves must be highlighted.

- Data-base: Use of video and pictures of children in the Friends-
International photo data-base will be regulated in accordance with local and international laws, the Friends-International Code of Conduct, Communications guidelines and our internal 7 Tips for Communications to protect the identity, rights and privacy of the children at all times. External requests to document our work which may involve the recording/photographing of children will at all times be governed by our media guidelines, which align with our internal policies.

• Disclosure: The disclosure of personal information on children is limited to those who need to know. All information about a child/children’s life, case history and personal information as well as photographs of children (both hard copies and information stored on the PC) will be kept in secure files. This is to ensure respect for children’s right to privacy and confidentiality, and to protect children from those who may use information about them to cause them harm. Information will never be used directly from confidential case files, either hard or soft copy.

• Access to Images: Outsiders and media representatives who want to use any information or images related to the work of Friends-International must meet with management / the International Coordinator for Communications and sign the “Media Guidelines” prior to any action. All areas of the media guidelines must be outlined with media and understood by them before signing of the agreement.

• Internal Communications: The guidelines for internal communication are the same as for external communication. Information about children can only be shared internally for work reasons and only to essential personnel (staff, volunteers, associates...) who need the information to act in the best interest of the child.

(See Annex 5 to find the Friends-International Media Guidelines)
6.6 | REPORTING AND REACTION PROCESS

• REQUIREMENTS FOR REPORTING AND REACTION PROCESS

The process for reporting and reacting to witnessed, suspected or alleged child abuse and/or violation of the child protection policy must be made available to, and understood by, all employees, contractors, trustees, interns, volunteers and children themselves. In the case of an incident, immediate and appropriate action must be taken in the best interests of the child, to treat the child with dignity and protect the child from harm.

All personnel and children must be clear about what they should do to report and react to an incident. Standard, transparent procedures and guidance must be in place to ensure that staff do not panic and act inappropriately, that they feel supported by senior staff and that they are fully aware of confidentiality principles. Clear procedures and guidance on what to do when a child protection incident or concern arises ensure there is a prompt response to concerns about a child’s safety or welfare.

The procedures:

• Provide step-by-step guidance on what action to take if there are concerns about a child’s safety or welfare;

• Are available to personnel and children and actively promoted;

• Provide relevant contact details for child protection services, social services department, police, emergency medical help and helplines that are readily available and easily accessible to representatives;

• Provide guidance to all representatives on confidentiality and information sharing;

• Explain the attitude to have during the process.
REPORTING AND REACTION GUIDELINES

Friends-International considers child abuse completely unacceptable under any circumstances. The following procedure must be followed for raising and reporting concerns of child abuse. The procedure has to be made accessible to all staff and children with help of a standardized flowchart for reporting suspected abuse.

(See Annex 6 to find the Friends-International Flow Chart)

• Guiding principle of the best interests of the Child: If any staff member knows of / witnesses / receives any information about the maltreatment of a child, it is his/her responsibility to respond immediately. The response is guided by concern for the welfare of the child above all else, with decisions made in the best interests of the child. All reporting and reaction protocols must remain child-focused and child-centered at all times, above and beyond the demands of bureaucracy.

If a child reports an incident, the child must be taken seriously, listened to carefully and treated with absolute respect. The child must feel confident and comfortable with the procedure.

The child must understand that the issue may need to be taken further. If a situation involves immediate harm to a child, action is to be taken without delay, as inaction may place the child in further danger. At no time must the child be returned to the environment where the abuse occurred.

If the child is minor and not living under the guardianship of Friends-International, his/her caregivers (if not the abuser) have to be informed about the incident and are to be involved in the further process if this is in accordance with the best interest of the child.

• Incident reporting: Any incident or suspicion of physical, sexual or emotional abuse, past or present, by Friends-International staff, volunteers, sponsors, donors, board members, partners or others must be reported immediately to the designated Child Protection Officer only.

If the concern involves the Child Protection Officer, the Program Director/Friends-International Management must be reported to instead.

If the concern involves the Management, the Board of Directors must be reported to instead.

As soon as possible (once the child is safe) the person receiving the disclosure needs to fully document the allegation, including the time, place and witnesses by using the report form. In certain instances there will be the obligation for the organization and its staff and others to report concerns to appropriate external bodies. This will usually occur as a consequence of the reporting procedure. However, if urgent action is required in order to protect children then it may be prior to the reporting procedure.

- Distance the alleged perpetrator: In the best interest of the child it may be decided to suspend the alleged staff member/volunteer during the course of the investigation. This decision can only be made by the Child Protection Officer and Program Director/Friends-International Management. The suspended Staff member(s) will receive full payment and are entitled to a just process that does not pre-suppose guilt or innocence. The allegations should not be discussed or communicated to other people until the allegations have been considered and a decision has been made. The decision made should be documented and filed by the Child Protection Officer.

- Investigation: The decision of how to investigate the incident must be made by the Child Protection Officer and the Program Director/Friends-International Management.

In the event that the Program Director is the subject of the concern, the Child Protection Officer must discuss the case with Friends-International Management. If Friends-International Director is the subject of the concern, the case must be discussed with the Friends-International Board.

The responsibility for investigating allegations of child abuse in many countries rests with the Police and local Social Service Department. The Child Protection Officer and/or Management may seek legal advice, and/or the advice of the Social Services or Police in deciding whether a formal referral to the authorities is necessary.

If it is decided that external reporting should not take place then there must be a clear rationale for that decision which should be recorded.

- Fake Reports: Reports that are made maliciously or not in good faith will warrant strict disciplinary action.

- Recording: The process leading to decision making must be well documented and all facts or written allegations and responses kept on file.

- Dropped cases: When a case is dropped, the reasons for doing so shall be communicated to the person who reported the matter and the concerned staff member(s) immediately reinstated.
• Complaint: If Staff and others think that the case has not been dealt with adequately by Child Protection Officer, Program Management and Friends-International Management, they are entitled to discuss their concern with the Friends-International Board.

• Supervision: Arrangements are made to provide supervision and support to those affected both during and following an allegation. This is to ensure that all personnel and children within the organization have the opportunity to discuss issues of concern in order to minimize trauma; that everyone is clear about the action that is being taken; that the person alleged of committing the offence is assumed innocent until proven guilty and that the process is conducted as smoothly as possible.

• Confidentiality: All cases of child abuse, whether alleged or proven, will be handled with the utmost confidentiality and shared only on a need-to-know basis. All written documents must be stored in secure files. Case feedback can be given to the person reporting when final decisions are made about action to be taken and where feedback does not break confidentiality or the best interest of the child.

(See Annex 3 to find the Friends-International Report form)

6.7 | RAMIFICATIONS OF MISCONDUIT

A REQUIREMENTS FOR RAMIFICATIONS OF MISCONDUCT:

There will be actions taken as a result of any investigation of an allegation of a violation of the policies, guidelines, principles or practice of child protection.

B GUIDELINES ON RAMIFICATIONS OF MISCONDUCT

If an allegation of a violation of the policies, guidelines, principles or practice of child protection is made concerning a named individual from a verifiable source against any employee, contractor, trustee, officer, intern or volunteer, they may be suspended from all activity / association with the organization pending the outcome of an independent investigation. Staff will continue to receive full pay during this time.

Further steps depend on the outcome of the independent investigation: If it comes to light that anyone associated with Friends-International commits acts in relation to children - whether within or outside the context of Friends-International’s work - which are criminal, grossly infringe children’s rights, or contravene the principles and standards contained in this document, the organization will take... immediate disciplinary action and any other action which may be appropriate to the circumstances. This may mean, for example, for:

• Employees: disciplinary action / dismissal

• Volunteers, trustees, officers and interns: ending the relationship with the organization

• Partners: if no proper action is taken, withdrawal of funding / support / collaboration

• Contractors: termination of contract

Depending on the nature, circumstances and location of the case, Friends-International will also consider involving authorities such as the police to ensure the protection of children and to pursue criminal prosecution where this is appropriate. The decision to suspend is not subject to challenge. When investigating and determining the concerns or complaints, the process should always be fair and any adverse determination should be open to challenge through an appeals process.

6.8 | EXTERNAL CHILD ABUSE/BENEFICIARIES ABUSE

In their profession, personnel might also be confronted with child abuse outside the organization, e.g. abuse within families, in communities, among children and youth etc. Staff and others have a duty to treat these cases in the same manner as those of abuse within the organization. Also in these cases, staff and others must fill the report form and discuss the case with the Child Protection Officer. In cases of external abuse, they are entitled to include their Superior into the discussion about the concern and development of adequate response.

(See Annex 3 to find the Friends-International Report Form)

CODE OF CONDUCT (CHILD RIGHTS FOCUSED)
Version: 20119

Introduction
This Code of Conduct is aimed at safeguarding the physical and mental well-being of all children and young people (hereon referred to as “child/children”) and parents, caretakers and sibilings (hereon referred to as beneficiaries), participating in ### programs, and preventing the abuse of children. All staff, volunteers, and associates (hereon referred to as «staff and others») of ### are required to agree and abide by this Code of Conduct.

In accordance with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, ### and all ### programs will always act in the «best interests of the child», and take action prior to any confirmation of guilt rather than risk any further harm to a child.

No abuse, in any form, towards a child or beneficiary will be tolerated. This Code of Conduct aims to protect children, other direct and indirect beneficiaries, staff and others, ### and its programs. Sufficient concerns about a staff member’s behavior with children or beneficiaries will result in full dismissal and possible referral to relevant authorities.

Any employee of FI not complying with any of the guidelines below will be subject to disciplinary action which may lead to termination of employment.

The term “child” refers to any child or young person -regardless of age- in contact with ### and its programs.

• Influence the religious beliefs of a child/beneficiary: comment on his/her religious beliefs in an inappropriate manner or try to convince a child/beneficiary to change his/her religious beliefs
• Direct a child/beneficiary to undertake a task for which staff and others personally gain.
• Have a personal commercial relation with a child/beneficiary or a relation involving a money exchange with a child/beneficiary: buy something from a child, exchange money with a child, give money to a child or loaning money to a child/beneficiary with or without interest.

• Work in a professional manner and maintain professional boundaries with beneficiaries
• Treat all children with equal regard and offer fair opportunities not based on relationship with the child.

- Reporting all concerns about inappropriate behavior, disclosures and allegations as soon as possible to the Child Protection Officer. If the concern involves this person, report to the Program Director or ### Management.
- Keeping all details about child protection concerns confidential from all except the Child Protection Officer and Program Director.
- Not attempting to investigate the case, confronting the accused person or questioning the child involved.
- Reporting abuse - failure to report abuse or concerns of abuse may lead to disciplinary action as staff may be seen to be complicit with the abuse.
- Taking action - knowledge of breaches in the code of conduct and failure to act to ensure the immediate safety of a child will be investigated and may lead to termination of employment.

Please note that if no action is taken by the Child Protection Officer, the Program Director or ### Management, the staff is entitled to discuss the case with the ### Board. If staff and others think that a case is not dealt with adequately, they should continue reporting their concern at higher levels until the case is dealt with in an appropriate manner.

I understand that any breach may result in immediate termination of my contract, position and/or involvement at ### and its programs. MEDIA GUIDELINES

Thank you for your interest in our work.

We are happy to collaborate with you in reporting on the issues and situation of marginalized urban children, their families and communities.

In order to ensure the full protection of the children and their families, our organization and yourself, we ask you to read carefully these guidelines. Permission to interview, photograph or film stories of the children, their families and our staff will be given once a signed copy of these guidelines has been received by the ### Communications Office.

Thank you.

The purpose of these guidelines are:

• To promote the rights of all children and families that ### works with.
• To protect children, young people, their families and communities from secondary exploitation via the media.
• To facilitate the development of media literacy for children and young people.
• To protect the organization and the journalists.

Please note that the terms “child” and “children” referred to include the entire target group of ###, regardless of age.

1. Interviewing Children

1.1 The best interests of the child are of paramount importance and should be reflected in the information gathering process as well as the final piece.

1.2 The ###’s Communications Office must always give authorization prior to photographing, filming, story writing, interviews or the circulation of case studies from ###’s projects and services. A full description of the purpose of the interview/photos, including where the final piece will appear or be published must be provided in writing, before authorization is given.

1.3 There should never be a link between a possibility traumatic story and a picture of a child. Children should never be identified as having experienced or as a victim of a particular issue, especially a traumatic one, for example HIV/AIDS, prostitution, trafficking, rape, drug use, etc.

1.4 Children are not to be interviewed alone. Children may only be interviewed with a ### staff member approved by the Coordinator present. Where possible a parent or guardian should also be present for children under the age of 16.
1.5 Children and/or their caregivers must be informed about the purpose of filming, photographing, or story taking, and give consent to this beforehand.

1.6 Children must feel in control, and an interview, filming, photographing (etc.) must conclude immediately if the child so wishes.

1.7 Children will only participate in an interview in their preferred language; a translator must be used to facilitate this.

1.8 The anonymity of children must be preserved. Names should not be mentioned, and changed if a name must be used. When detailing an individual’s story, names and locations should be changed to protect the identity of the child in question. High profile cases should be addressed very carefully so as not to further accelerate the notoriety of the individual circumstance.

1.9 No sexually explicit or implicit photos can be taken. This means:
   1.9.1 No photographs of naked children.
   1.9.2 No photographs of children imitating or simulating adult themed or sexually exploitive scenarios, or violent actions.

1.10 Individual children should not be the primary and sole subject of a piece, children’s narratives must be used to illustrate a particular point. More than one child’s story can be used to illustrate a single point.

1.11 For interview: It will be explained to the children that they should only tell as much as and only what they want. It should be acknowledged that there is a power imbalance as children are receiving services from FI and therefore may feel obliged to share more than they initially wish.

1.12 A copy of the media coverage will be provided to be shared with the children and the teams.

2. Field Visits with Friends teams

2.1 The Communications Office and Project Coordinator must both give authorization prior to photographing, filming, story writing or interviewing children or adults in the field. A full description of the purpose of the interview/photographs, including where the final piece will appear or be published, must be provided before authorization is given.

2.2 All visits should be organized well in advance with teams. Teams should be able to contact and inform individuals or communities about visitors and the reason for the visit well before time.

2.3 Children and adults must always be informed about the purpose of filming, photographing, or story taking, and give consent to this beforehand.

2.4 The anonymity of subjects must be preserved. Names and locations of families or individuals should not be mentioned, and changed if a name must be used.
2.5 No direct questions about HIV status and related topics (such as treatments) may be asked. If the subject gives this information freely, this is acceptable.

2.6 No direct questions about sensitive family issues such as domestic violence, alcoholism or sexual abuse may be asked.

2.7 General filming/photographing of the community surroundings is acceptable, with the restriction of sexually explicit or implicit images of children and adults, such as naked children or working prostitutes.

2.8 Any filming or photography of children and beneficiaries engraining in illegal or risk taking behavior, such as drug or prostitution should be identified before distribution to protect the identity of the beneficiary.

2.9 No politically sensitive questions such as political opinion, displacement or eviction issues may be asked. Discussion of such topics may place the interviewee at risk. Information volunteered freely is acceptable.

2.10 The story should reflect the activities of the ### project and not solely the personal story of the child, family or an individual. The object of the message must be clear before embarking on a field visit.

2.11 All stories and images should represent the individual in a respectful and dignified way.

2.12 One ### staff and one social worker/child protection officer will be present at all times and can terminate interviews or filming at any point if the media guidelines are not followed or it is determined that the continuation of the interview/filming is not in the best interest of the beneficiary.

2.13 Additional notes for field visits:
   2.13.1 Visitors must stay with ### staff while in the field.
   2.13.2 The timing of the visit is determined in consultation with the family or the individual and ### staff and may be changed or interrupted at any time.
   2.13.3. ### cannot be held responsible for loss or damage to equipment or material brought by visitors. It is the responsibility of visitors to carry equipment and ensure the safety of their belongings.
   2.13.4. Visitors must attend a briefing meeting with ### staff before the visit to the community.
   2.13.5. No donation of cash or in kind should be given directly to the families or individuals. Purchasing of products at wholesale prices is permitted.

I accept these terms and agree to comply with ### Media Guidelines.
