EMPLOYMENT TRAINER POSITION

HELLO from Kaliyan Mith Siem Reap

Are you experienced working in HR or training and development? Are you thinking about changing your career? Would you like to use your skills to support youth and adults to prepare for their first job or run their own business?

If you answered 'yes', then you may just be the person we are looking for.

How about these responsibilities? Would you enjoy them?

- Providing soft skills training to youth and adults, as well as providing coaching support
- Preparing people to find a job and become successful at their work through fun and creative activities
- Provide youths' group or individuals with the tools they need for successful interpersonal communication at work
- Reviewing existing lesson and developing new content base on the situation changes and plans to support targeted learning outcomes
- Supporting young people and adults to start and grow their businesses
- Linking with NGOs' partner, business partners, high-school universities and government agencies. In order to promote opportunities for young generation learners

We are changing the way to support people by providing youths and adults the resources, training and mentoring so that they are able to find a job or running their business. You will be working with a diverse group of people such as NGOs' partners, high-school and university students, fresh graduates, adults looking for or changing jobs, professionals looking to improve their skills and people starting or running their business. This is your opportunity to support learning on a range of exciting topics such as communications, team work, creativity and entrepreneurship. While being based in Siem Reap you'll also be working together with more than 300 multicultural Friends' team members and partners across Southeast Asia.

SOUNDS GOOD? Awesome! Please email your CV and cover letter now to hr.kaliyanmith@friends-international.org and let's talk more.

All applicants will undergo an extensive background check in compliance with our Child/Beneficiary Protection Policy and PSEA Policy.
