

#job #socialwork #ngo #childprotection #education #vocationaltraining #lifeskills #employment #trainer #cooking #thinkfamilies #myanmar #yangon #youthempowerment

COOKING TEACHER / TRAINER

HELLO FROM FRIENDS MYANMAR

Do you enjoy cooking delicious food from Myanmar and enjoy teaching? Would you like to be a part of a new creative project located in the center of Yangon?

If you answered 'yeah' to any of the above then you may just be the person we are looking for.

What about these? Think you'd fit?

- You are skilled in cooking various creative dishes
- You know very well about the standards for food hygiene and safety
- You enjoy showing young people all the skills needed for cooking
- You are able to deliver the excellent customer services
- You are an excellent team player and you get along well with others
- You are good at problem-solving
- You enjoy preparing street food style recipes
- You are SUPER excited to work on setting up a business from the beginning

We are starting a new initiative - to deliver the most yummiest variety of food in Yangon, served in our beautiful courtyard. While you are making our customer's belly happy – young people will learn from you – you become a Cooking Teacher! A Cooking Teacher is super important because they help their students to complete cooking training and then find a job!

We hope that you also enjoy gaining new skills! You will have a chance to work and be trained by our international team of hospitality experts. As this project is part of Yangon, you will also get support by our diverse team of social workers, teachers, business experts and many others.

Sounds good? Awesome! Please email your CV and Cover Letter with salary expectations now to hr.myanmar@friends-international and let's talk more.

All applicants will undergo an extensive background check in compliance with our Child/Beneficiary Protection Policy and PSEA Policy