DATA COLLECTOR INTERN

HELLO from Kaliyan Mith Siem Reap

Are you looking to gain some practical NGO working experience? Have you done surveys before? Would you be excited to work with our team on doing an assessment of our employment project?

If you answered 'yes' to any of the above then you may just be the person we need.

YES? Then what are you waiting for!

Does this describe you?

- You are familiar with the data collection tools such as Google forms
- You have good communication skills, both orally and in writing in Khmer and English
- You are well organized and you have good attention to details
- You have a strong commitment to work in building futures for children, youth their families and their communities

Friends is carrying out a survey to assess the situation of people placed in jobs or self-employment. The goal is to understand the impact of Covid-19 on employment and their economic situation. We are looking for someone to contact directly our beneficiaries in order to find out about their situation and support needs. This data will allow us to implement appropriate services to respond to their needs and ensure their continued stability.

The activities of the project will start on 5th of August and will last approximately 2-4 weeks. We will need you to be available at least 20 hours per week to complete all the necessary tasks.

You'll be collaborating with more than 350 #EverydayHeroes in Cambodia, Thailand, Laos, Indonesia and Myanmar, experts in child protection, family reintegration, NGO networks, education, vocational training and many others!

SOUNDS GOOD? Awesome! Please email your CV and cover letter now to hr.kaliyanmith@friends-international.org and let's talk more.

All applicants will undergo an extensive background check in compliance with our Child/Beneficiary Protection Policy and PSEA Policy.

Friends team
